BELGRADE HAS QUIETED DOWN

Storm Center of Balkan Situation Now Tranquil.

WOULD MEAN DESTRUCTION

Servians Apparently Realize That War With Austria-Hungary Would Be Fatal to Their Country—British and Russian Foreign Officials Confer on the Situation—Powers Await Result of Conferences.

London, Oct. 12.—Belgrade, the storm center in the present Balkan situation, has quieted down. After a long secret session, the national assembly has taken no definite action with regard to making war upon Austria-Hungary. The city itself has quieted down, the people apparently realizing that war would mean the destruction of Servian nationality. All the great powers are awaiting the result of the conferences which have been going on in London and which will continue between M. Iswolsky, the Russian foreign minister, and Sir Edward Grey, the British secretary for foreign affairs. King Edward himself took part in the conference on Sunday, when he had as his guest at Buckingham palace the representative of Russia, who also is completely informed on the French views.

A dispatch from Gibraltar says that the British Atlantic fleet of six battleships is making ready to sail for the East and the destination probably is Malta, from which place the British Mediterranean fleet sailed a few days ago for the Aegean sea.

Paris hears that Great Britain is keeping Turkey advised on every step of the negotiations going on between M. Iswolsky and Sir Edward Grey, in order to make the assent of the porte secure. A final programme, it is expected, soon will be definitely outlined at London.

HOLDS SECRET SESSION.

But Servian National Assembly Fails to Take Any Action.

Belgrade, Servia, Oct. 12.—After a secret session lasting more than twenty-four hours the narodna skupstina, or national assembly, adjourned without having arrived at any definite conclusion with regard to its action against Austria-Hungary. The assembly will meet again and the session will be open to the public.

According to the most reliable information, no vote was taken on the question at issue. The meeting was a very stormy one and was interrupted by various recesses. War was demanded with Austria-Hungary, but the leaders of the war faction cooled down after Foreign Minister Milovanovic had made a lengthy statement in which he explained that one reason why hostilities were impossible was the scarcity of ammunition for the new batteries, which are now being transported here, but have been detained on the Austrian lines.

The leaders of all the parties complained earnestly that the government protest to the powers against the annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovina was not couched in sufficiently strong terms, but the foreign minister eventually succeeded in convincing the house of the correctness of the cabinet's attitude, and it is anticipated that the assembly will adopt a vote of confidence in the government.

Thus, for the moment, the danger point in the Balkan crisis is passed, and Servia is expected to content herself temporarily by instituting a boycott against Austria-Hungarian commerce in the way of revenge.

It was stated that Mr. Milovanovic will shortly proceed to London, Paris and Rome to lay Servia's claim before the powers.

A representative of the French foreign office has arrived here on a special mission.

Despite the warlike language of the crown prince on Saturday when he declared before the angered thousands who had gathered at the palace that he believed they all soon would be able to offer their lives in defense of the king and his fatherland, demonstrations in the streets are becoming less numerous and less serious and apparently the people are beginning to realize that war would mean the annihilation of Servia.

Reports published abroad that a general mobilization of the Servian army has been ordered are incorrect. Only the first reserves have been called out, and it is not intended to summon the other classes at the present time.

Despite all efforts to keep it in the background, Bryanism is really the pampant issue of the campaign.

EUROPEAN CONFERENCE.

Four of the Powers in Favor of Holding One.

Constantinople, Oct. 12.—The porte has received reports from Great Britain, France, Italy and Russia all favorable to the assembling of a European conference and it is expected that Germany also will acquiesce in this.

Kiamil Pasha, the grand vizier, in a conversation with the Servian minister on Saturday strongly advised prudence and moderation on the part of Servia. Demonstrations in protest against the Austro-Hungarian movement continue to be held in the large towns throughout Turkey, 20,000 people gathering at Adrianople Sunday for this purpose.

The sultan made his annual mid-Ramazan journey to Stamboul to take part in the ceremony of veneration of the prophet's mantle. There had been fears of a reactionary demonstration at this place, but no untoward incident occurred.

END THEIR LIVES WITH GAS

Man and Woman Commit Suicide at Lincoln, Neb.

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 12.—B. L. Shepard, traveling salesman for the Marshall Pennyweight Scales company, and Mrs. Leona Brunner, stewardess at the Lincoln Commercial club, were found dead in the apartments of the man in a business block on North Eleventh street. Gas pouring from the room caused an investigation by occupants of the block, and when the door was broken down the room was so filled with gas it was impossible to remain in it. The couple had evidently been dead several hours, the supposition of the police being that they turned on the gas jet with suicidal intent, though the possibility of accidental death is admitted. Each was about thirty-seven years old. Both had been married, but divorced.

KILLED BY INDIANS.

Noted Michigan Author Is Slain in Wilds of Canada.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 12.—A report for the Pas states that James Oliver Curwood, the well known author of Detroit, Mich., who recently went into the Hudson bay wilds for the Bobbs-Merrill Publishing Co., has been killed by Indians in the Lac la Ronge country. Details are lacking, but the trader who brought the report says that the Lac la Ronge Indians claim that the white man began the trouble by shooting one of their number. The mounted police officials are investigating and their report is expected within a few days. Curwood had been writing for some time on Canadian subjects and was in search of material for a new series on the Hudson Bay railway project.

LITTLE BOY KILLED.

And a Woman Is Wounded by a Minneapolis Policeman.

Minneapolis, Oct. 12.—Theodore Hedine, five and a half years old and residing with his parents at 2436 Third second avenue south, was shot through the eye and killed, and Miss Julia Churchill, 2341 Twenty-eighth avenue south, was disfigured probably for life by shots fired by Officer John Connolly of the South Side station.

The shooting occurred while Officer Connolly was trying to arrest Ernest Dwinell for drunkenness and disorderly conduct at Twenty-seventh street avenue and Twenty-fifth street south in a district which is known as "the Hub of Hell."

When the officer attempted to make the arrest he was attacked by a band of rowdies, who tried to get Dwinell away from him. The officer fired one shot to frighten them, and this shot struck the ground, glanced upward and struck the Hedine boy, who was standing with his father on the opposite corner, about 150 feet distant.

The bullet struck the boy in the eye and he fell to the ground without uttering a sound. He died a few hours later.

The second shot was fired accidentally. When Officer Connolly was holding Dwinell at the patrol box the latter struggled to get away. The officer's revolver was discharged and the bullet hit Miss Churchill in the jaw inflicting a bad but not fatal wound.

Bryan will be convicted for the third time in November that this country has got the habit.

Football Player Dead.

Cannonsburg, Pa., Oct. 12.—William M. Potts, the football player who was injured in a game here on Oct. 3, died after having been unconscious since last Monday. During a game with the high school eleven he was kicked on the head.

NARROW ESCAPE FOR AERONAUTS

Accident Occurs During Balloon Race at Berlin.

BURST AT A HIGH ALTITUDE

American Balloon Collapsed and Fell Like a Bullet for Two Thousand Feet—Then the Torn Silk Bag Assumed the Shape of a Parachute. Thus Checking the Rapidity of the Descent and Saving the Lives of the Balloonists.

Berlin, Oct. 12.—The international balloon race, which started from the suburb of Schmargendorf, was the occasion of a thrilling accident, two American aeronauts having a miraculous escape from death. The American balloon Conqueror, the only American built craft in the contest, having on board A. Holland Forbes and Augustus Post, less than two minutes after the start, burst at an altitude of 4,000 feet. For 2,000 feet it shot down like a bullet, and then the torn silk bag assumed the shape of a parachute, thus checking the rapidity of the descent. Coming close to the earth, however, the basket smashed into the roof of a house, but the two men escaped with but slight injuries.

The race, in which twenty-three balloons participated, representing Great Britain, France, Germany, the United States, Switzerland, Italy, Belgium and Spain, started in the presence of at least 80,000 spectators. The sun shone brilliantly and the heat was that of summer. Amid the strains of "America," and volleys of cheers the first balloon was sent away. It was the "America II," under command of James C. McCoy, who was accompanied by Lieutenant Voghmann. The balloon was decorated with the Stars and Stripes, and it sailed away to the southeast at a rapid pace, the aeronauts waving their hats.

A representative of each of the other nations followed the American balloon in succession at intervals of two minutes, the national hymn of the respective countries ringing forth as the ropes were cast loose.

Balloon Collapsed.

The second batch of eight balloons was led by Forbes in the Conqueror, which was started with some difficulty owing to a gusty wind and too much ballast. But eventually it shot up and reached a high altitude in an incredibly short period, the basket swaying violently. Then almost instantly a cry of horror arose from the crowd, who saw the silk collapse and shouted, "the balloon is ripping up."

Thousands who had gathered there stood for a moment petrified.

Some turned away, fainting as they saw the balloon falling with lightning-like rapidity. At the same time showers of sand and appurtenances of the balloon shot downward with equal rapidity and then daylight was seen through the envelope, great ragged edges of the silk showing on either side.

"They are killed," went in a hushed whisper through the crowd, but shortly the remainder of the envelope appeared to take, first a triangular shape and then was transformed into a sort of parachute at the top of the net and the progress of the wrecked balloon was considerably arrested.

It came down slower and slower, meanwhile being swept by the wind far to the southeast, and finally disappeared from view behind a block of houses. The suspense among the crowd was terrible. But a few minutes later a telephone message was received from Friedenaue, which announced that the men had landed and had not been seriously injured. A great sigh of relief went up among the people, who threw their hats in the air for joy. The other balloons were sent up after a brief delay, without further accident.

RIOT IN NEW YORK.

Number of Persons Are Slightly Injured.

New York, Oct. 12.—A number of persons were injured and windows in the Hotel Knickerbocker were broken in a riot that followed an attack made on Albert Lind, a strike-breaker employed by the New York Taxicab company. A crowd of 500 persons, sympathizers with the striking chauffeurs, hurled stones, sticks and other missiles at the chauffeur, who took refuge in a doorway of the big hotel. In the fusillade the taxicab was wrecked and three windows of the main dining room of the hotel were shattered. The guests of the Knickerbocker fled from the room in panic.

A call was sent for the reserves and soon half a dozen patrol wagons arrived with fifty policemen. It took half an hour to disperse the mob.

"MICHAEL'S"

AVENGER BILL JONES ARRESTED

Man Who Shot at Guiteau Kills an Employee.

Washington, Oct. 12.—Noted for having attempted to avenge the death of President Garfield by shooting at Guiteau, the assassin, William Jones, locally known as Bill Jones, the avenger, a farmer, shot and killed John A. McPherson of Detroit, Mich., at Bates Farm, near Brookland, on the outskirts of this city.

The weapon used was a shotgun and McPherson's breast was riddled with buckshot, several of which penetrated his heart. An unloaded Winchester rifle was found lying beside the body. The shotgun was found on the porch of Jones' house.

Jones was arrested shortly after the crime was committed, while he was on his way to Baltimore, where he owns property. He was brought to this city and lodged in jail.

Mrs. Jones, who is said to have been an eye-witness to the killing, has not been found. Jones admitted to Coroner Nevitt that he shot McPherson, but claims that he acted in self-defense.

The two men had been drinking. It is said. The police are able to advance but one theory as to a motive for the crime. They have learned, it is said, that the two men had quarrelled over the possession of a horse.

McPherson, who was twenty-nine years old, had been working on Jones' farm since he was discharged from the United States marine corps on June 24, last.

Several days following upon President Garfield's death Guiteau was taken to court for a preliminary hearing and it was while he was being returned to jail under charge of District Marshal Carkhill that Jones attempted to shoot him. Jones was riding a spirited horse. He followed the prison van from the courthouse to within several blocks of the jail, when he suddenly spurred his horse, darted through the crowd, drew a revolver and fired into the van. Guiteau, who was sitting near the door, caught a glimpse of Jones as he drew the weapon and dodged. The bullet sped over his head and lodged in the side of the wagon. Jones, believing he had killed Guiteau, dug spurs into his horse's side and escaped arrest at that time.

He was captured shortly afterward near Fredericksburg, Va. Jones was tried and acquitted. Jones in later years has been regarded by his neighbors as a good, law-abiding citizen and the police records fail to disclose anything against him.

Georgia Negro Lynched.

Empire, Ga., Oct. 12.—A negro named Henry White was shot to death by a mob at Youcker, six miles from here. White, it is said, started out to shoot up the family of Thomas Allen and on his way met another negro, whom he shot and wounded. He went on to Allen's and shot at him and his wife. White was captured and placed in jail. A band of unknown men took White from jail, tied him to a tree and riddled him with bullets.

Former Senator Hunton Dead.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 12.—General Eppa Hunton, ex-United States senator and one of the last surviving generals of the Confederate army, died in this city, aged eighty-five years.

ON HIS FINAL TOUR.

Republican Candidate Taft Leaves Cincinnati.

Cincinnati, Oct. 12.—William H. Taft climbed Mount Auburn, the highest of Cincinnati's seven hills, and then climbed the stairway of the water tower which surmounts the hill. Previous to this exercise, which the candidate took in anticipation of his three weeks in a private car, he attended Christ Episcopal church with Mrs. Taft.

The Taft special has left Cincinnati for three days in Ohio, three days in the South, next Sunday in Washington, a day in New Jersey and Maryland, another in Ohio, three in Indiana, a week in New York, with a closing meeting of the campaign in Youngstown, O., on the night before election, and then home to vote.

Preceding this, his final effort of the campaign, the candidate expressed himself as not only fit for the duties which devolve upon him, but confident of the result of the campaign. Again he said, as he did during his Western trip:

"I shall be elected president of the United States."

United States Senator William Alden Smith of Michigan accompanies the candidate on his trip in Ohio, and Leslie M. Shaw, formerly secretary of the treasury, will travel with Mr. Taft in the South.

GOMPERS IS ENDORSED.

His Appeal for Political Campaign Funds Upheld.

New York, Oct. 12.—At a meeting of the Central Federated union endorsement was given one of the circulars sent out by President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor asking for contributions to a fund for political campaign work. After a lively debate the resolution endorsing the circular and recommendation of the executive committee that the unions in the New York federation be asked to contribute were adopted by a vote of 57 to 34.

The general understanding among the delegates seemed to be that the circulars were intended as an appeal to the unions to support the Democratic party.

NEGROES LYNCHED BY MISSISSIPPI MOB

Were Accused of Wounding a Railroad Conductor.

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 12.—A special from Lula, Miss., says:

Jim and Frank Davis, negroes, charged with having shot and probably fatally wounded John C. Kendall, a conductor of the Illinois Central railroad, were taken from the jail here by a mob and hanged.

The shooting of Kendall occurred aboard a passenger train near here late Sunday when the conductor endeavored to quiet the negroes, who, it is said, had been drinking and created a disturbance. Another negro who participated in the shooting escaped, but is being pursued by a posse.

CONFIDENT OF SUCCESS.

William J. Bryan Believes He Will Be Elected.

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 12.—Having spent several active days last week on the stump, William J. Bryan devoted much of his time to resting up preparatory to a hard week of campaigning in Nebraska, Colorado and Wyoming. He arrived here direct from St. Joseph, Mo., where he had a rousing reception. The westward journey will be begun early Tuesday morning.

Speaking of the results of his campaign so far, the Democratic candidate declared himself as being confident of success. He stated that reports received by him indicate a constantly increasing sentiment toward the Democratic party.

Popularity, not patronage, made Taft the natural successor to the Roosevelt policies of which Claimant Bryan proclaims himself the heir.

If, as Mr. Hearst says, the Democratic party is now "drunk with power," what a fearful spectacle it would present if it were given any more power.

GOMPERS IS ENDORSED.

His Appeal for Political Campaign Funds Upheld.

New York, Oct. 12.—At a meeting of the Central Federated union endorsement was given one of the circulars sent out by President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor asking for contributions to a fund for political campaign work. After a lively debate the resolution endorsing the circular and recommendation of the executive committee that the unions in the New York federation be asked to contribute were adopted by a vote of 57 to 34.

The general understanding among the delegates seemed to be that the circulars were intended as an appeal to the unions to support the Democratic party.

Popularity, not patronage, made Taft the natural successor to the Roosevelt policies of which Claimant Bryan proclaims himself the heir.

If, as Mr. Hearst says, the Democratic party is now "drunk with power," what a fearful spectacle it would present if it were given any more power.

NEGROES LYNCHED BY MISSISSIPPI MOB

Were Accused of Wounding a Railroad Conductor.

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 12.—A special from Lula, Miss., says:

Jim and Frank Davis, negroes, charged with having shot and probably fatally wounded John C. Kendall, a conductor of the Illinois Central railroad, were taken from the jail here by a mob and hanged.

The shooting of Kendall occurred aboard a passenger train near here late Sunday when the conductor endeavored to quiet the negroes, who, it is said, had been drinking and created a disturbance. Another negro who participated in the shooting escaped, but is being pursued by a posse.

CONFIDENT OF SUCCESS.

William J. Bryan Believes He Will Be Elected.

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 12.—Having spent several active days last week on the stump, William J. Bryan devoted much of his time to resting up preparatory to a hard week of campaigning in Nebraska, Colorado and Wyoming. He arrived here direct from St. Joseph, Mo., where he had a rousing reception. The westward journey will be begun early Tuesday morning.

Speaking of the results of his campaign so far, the Democratic candidate declared himself as being confident of success. He stated that reports received by him indicate a constantly increasing sentiment toward the Democratic party.

Popularity, not patronage, made Taft the natural successor to the Roosevelt policies of which Claimant Bryan proclaims himself the heir.

If, as Mr. Hearst says, the Democratic party is now "drunk with power," what a fearful spectacle it would present if it were given any more power.

The Fleur-de-Lis.

The origin of the fleur-de-lis is still an unsettled question. There are many theories, but no two of them agree. One makes the emblem originate with Clovis I., another with Louis VII., another with one of the German kings of the twelfth century and still another with the Romans. All that is definitely settled is the fact that since the twelfth century the fleur-de-lis has been employed as the emblem of French royalty. The nature of the emblem is also in dispute. An old tradition makes it the representation of the lily given by the angel to Clovis at his baptism. Another theory is that it was adopted by Louis VII. in allusion to his name, Louis Floris.

David B. Hill pleads that his health will not permit him to campaign for Bryan. If Mr. Hill is still a Democrat, he should know that the time for a Democrat to be sick is the day after the election.

IRONIC DEFLECTIONS FROM BRYAN CONTINUE

Democratic Leaders from Coast to Coast Reject Vagaries of the Nebraska Weather Vane.

William Prentiss of Chicago Says Bryan as President Would Be a Failure—Southern Lifelong Democrats Repudiate the Candidate Who Tramples on His Ideals to Catch Votes.

The number of prominent Democrats all over the country who have announced their desertion of Bryan and have advised their friends to vote for Taft and Sherman is a matter of grave concern to Mr. Bryan's managers. In Richmond, Va., always a rock-ribbed citadel of Democracy, a Taft business men's club has been organized, with hundreds of members, and in Baltimore the defections of leading Democrats has become the subject of a daily serial in the newspapers. These illustrations are given not because they are exceptional in this campaign, but because of their geographical location.

In Chicago a sensation was caused by William Prentiss, who announced that he will support Taft instead of Bryan for President and Deenee instead of Stevenson for Governor. Mr. Prentiss has been a Democratic leader in Chicago for several years. He was Civil Service Commissioner under Mayor Dunne and has several times been Democratic candidate for judge. In 1898 he was chairman of the Democratic State convention. He was formerly an ardent Bryan partisan.

In a letter made public recently Mr. Prentiss charges Bryan with betraying his followers and forsaking the principles for which he stood prior to the present campaign.

Mr. Prentiss says: "Bryan claims that he is the man to continue and extend Roosevelt's work, claiming much of it as suggestions of his own. Less than three months ago I preferred Bryan as Roosevelt's successor. He was my party leader, in whom I then had full confidence. But, as before indicated, my faith in Bryan is a relic. Bryan, not the ideal Bryan of the past, but the real Bryan of today, surrounded by the Macks, Murphys, McGraws, Taggart, Sullivan, and Joe Baileys et al. of the present-day Democratic party, at the best could be but a dismal failure."

California Democrats for Taft.

John J. Barrett, for years one of the most brilliant orators of the Democratic party of California, has registered this year as a Republican. That registration has given the Democratic managers a shock only second to that which they felt when they learned that M. F. Tarpey had deserted the shifting cause of Bryan.

"My registration speaks for itself," said Mr. Barrett. "When asked to state my politics I said I was a Republican. That tells the tale."

Barrett preached Democratic doctrines from all the stumps of California.

Reasons of a North Carolinian.

Regardless of past affiliations, students of affairs, delvers and thinkers, are fast lining up for Judge Taft. A recent example is that of Silas McBee, editor of the Churchman, of New York. In an interview he says:

"I am a North Carolinian by birth and a lifelong Democrat. I shall vote for Mr. Taft because he has it in his heart to bring my people of the South back into absolute union with the national life and to their historic place as a controlling force in the nation, and to do which would immortalize him as a statesman."

"I shall vote for him because he more nearly represents my ideals of government, of social order and economic policy than any living Democrat, or any man before the people to-day, save alone Theodore Roosevelt, who is the only Republican President I have ever voted for. Mr. Taft has administered every trust committed to him by the nation with an eye single to the nation's good and for the highest interests of the people that compose the nation."

The Roster in Baltimore.

Mr. George R. Willis, former president of the Police Board of Baltimore and Democrat of the old school will cast the first Republican vote since he attained his majority. Mr. Willis will vote for Taft.

"Under no circumstances could I vote for Bryan," said he, "for the reason that I do not believe he is sincere, and if sincere, is not a good man for President of the United States."

"How do you gauge public sentiment?" Mr. Willis was asked.

"Among my clientele I know of no one who will vote for Bryan. There is not a Democrat who favors him."

Another prominent southern Democrat who will vote for Taft is Mr. W. A. Garrett, chief executive officer to the receivers of the Seaboard Air Line Railway Company.

Mr. Garrett's reasons for supporting the Republican candidate are that he is the candidate of the business men and his election would be for the best interests of the country.

Mr. Garrett says he has noticed a leaning toward Taft in several of the

SO WE LIVE. POOR BREAD WILL RUIN THE BEST MEAL AND A DAY'S DIGESTION. POOR BREAD IS IMPOSSIBLE IF MADE OF

ROMAN FLOUR

Southern States and instanced Alabama as one of these.

Two men who have always been prominent in Democratic circles in Baltimore who have announced that they did not think enough of Bryan to vote for him, and that they would support Taft instead, are Mr. John E. Semmes, one of the prominent lawyers of Baltimore and president of the School Board, and Mr. Leigh Bonsal, who in years past has been one of the most active workers in the Democratic party. Both men said that they could not stand for Bryan and his policies.

Mr. Bonsal's defection from the ranks of Democracy was an especial shock to the Bryan men in the State. They had counted on him as one of the prize spellbinders during the coming campaign, and had no idea but that he was an ardent supporter of the Democratic nominees. "When and where will it suit you best to speak during the coming campaign in behalf of Mr. Bryan?" Mr. Bryan's friends in Maryland wrote him. When Mr. Bonsal replied that he intended to vote for Taft the correspondence ceased.

Major Richard M. Venable, former president of the Baltimore Park Board and one of the most prominent Independent Democrats in Maryland, has declared for Taft and against Bryan. "I am for Taft," said Major Venable, "as I do not agree with Mr. Bryan's opinions on the various questions now confronting the public."

"He has not the judgment and temperament of a statesman. A statesman knows that no matter how desirable a reform may be he must take short steps in accomplishing it. He knows that it cannot be done in a day. The public mind and the new machinery of administration must be educated and adapted to introduce such radical changes as are contained in Mr. Bryan's program, even conceding for the argument that he is right."

Waldo Newcomer, president of the National Exchange Bank of Baltimore, says that although he believes in the principles of the Democratic party and would like to cast his ballot for the Democratic ticket, he finds it impossible to support Bryan and his ideas.

Mr. Newcomer characterized the Bryan plank in the Denver platform guaranteeing deposits in banks as nonsensical and unnecessary. He said the scheme smacked of paternalism, and is not founded upon sound or good business principles.

Mr. Newcomer said he did not regard Mr. Bryan as the type of man to make a satisfactory or safe President, and felt that the interests of the country and the people as a whole would be far better promoted this time by the election of Mr. Taft, in whose sanity, soundness and honesty every one who knows him has the utmost confidence.

Frederic R. Coudert, for years a prominent New York Independent Democrat, has stated that he intends to vote for Taft.

J. E. Smith, vice president of the Simmons Hardware Company of St. Louis, whose politics heretofore has been Democratic, has come out for Taft. He says many other Democrats among St. Louis business men will mark their ballots the same way.

New York Newspaper Deserts Bryan.

The Ithaca (N. Y.) Chronicle, a newspaper heretofore Democratic, has broken with that party and joined the opposition, saying:

"Believing that there is no hope for reasonable men in the Democracy under its present leaders; refusing to truckle to the misfit combination of Populism, Socialism, corruption and bossism presented under the guise of Democracy, the Chronicle takes its stand firmly for Taft and Sherman, for Hughes and his running mate."

TAFT'S SERVICE TO LABOR.

Destroyed the Old English Law Assumption that Union Labor is a Conspiracy.

(From the Emporia (Kan.) Gazette.)

The simple fact is that no man has done more to place union labor on a sound, square, law-abiding, respected footing than William H. Taft by his decisions in labor cases. Both employers and employed have acknowledged the justice of his decisions and learned to abide by them, and to-day there is not an intelligent worker or fair minded employer who would seek to abrogate them.

Judge Taft lifted union labor from the doubt and uncertainty as to its rights which had before prevented and gave it a standing which it has ever since retained, and which has proved under his rulings, secure against all attack. The old assumption, derived from England, that union labor is a conspiracy, and that workers could be prevented from leaving railway or other employment at their will, was swept away forever by Judge Taft so far as the United States is concerned, and when an attempt was made, years later, to revive the principle, Judge Taft's decision was quoted successfully by the labor side to defeat the plea.

Mr. Taft was and is labor's friend, because he is absolutely just, and would no more permit wrong to be done to the poorest laborer in the land than he would to any one else. And the honest, law-abiding workers asks and expects no more than this.

Bryan, Purveyor of Proverbs.

In the course of a speech at Elmore, Ind., Oct. 6, 1900, William Jennings Bryan again assured his countrymen that the fight for free silver had not been abandoned, but would go on until victory was won. "When I see a man," he continued, "who has learned by experience what he ought to have learned by reason I am reminded of one of Solomon's proverbs, which is, 'The wise man foreseeth the evil and hideth himself, but the foolish pass on and are punished.'"

Mr. Bryan's purpose in quoting from Solomon was to admonish his hearers that it was time for the wise man to get into line for free coinage at 16 to 1 and that the foolish who refused to do so would surely be punished. Everybody knows what happened in November of that year. Indeed, some of those who heartlessly disobeyed Mr. Bryan's warning were cruel enough after election day to pass out to him a few selections of their own from the proverbial wisdom of Solomon. For example:

"The wise in heart will receive commandments, but the prating fool shall fail."

"It is as sport to a fool to do mischief, but a man of understanding hath wisdom."

"A wise man feareth and departeth from evil, but the foolish rageth and is confident."

All of which, it is respectfully submitted, shows that Mr. Bryan was just as indiscreet in dragging the proverbs of Solomon into his stump speeches as he was when he adopted the "cross of gold" as one of his campaign trappings.

A True American Sentiment.

"I will not hit a man when he is down, even if it would win me every vote in the United States." William H. Taft, Republican candidate for president of the United States, is reported to have said when asked to denounce a personal opponent against whom charges of a serious nature had been made.

Thus spoke the genuine manliness, the magnanimity in the nature of William H. Taft, which led McKinley to say of him, "He's the broadest and most unselfishly brave man I know." William H. Taft could not take any one at an unfair advantage, because it is not in him to do it. Unaffected by fear or favor in dealing out impartial justice, he is gifted with that sympathy for the weak and the fallen which ever goes with true greatness of soul. Every American, be his politics what they may, admires the character of man revealed in the impulsive utterance of William H. Taft, and the candidate who "would not kick a man when he is down if it would win him every vote in the United States" will win all the more votes by words so expressive of a sentiment deep treasured in every true American heart.

It is instructive to observe thousands of wage earners whose votes Gompers has assumed to "throw" to Bryan march in the Taft processions.

The origin of the fleur-de-lis is still an unsettled question. There are many theories, but no two of them agree. One makes the emblem originate with Clovis I., another with Louis VII., another with one of the German kings of the twelfth century and still another with the Romans. All that is definitely settled is the fact that since the twelfth century the fleur-de-lis has been employed as the emblem of French royalty. The nature of the emblem is also in dispute. An old tradition makes it the representation of the lily given by the angel to Clovis at his baptism. Another theory is that it was adopted by Louis VII. in allusion to his name, Louis Florus.

David B. Hill pleads that his health will not permit him to campaign for Bryan. If Mr. Hill is still a Democrat, he should know that the time for a Democrat to be sick is the day after the election.

IRONIC DEFLECTIONS FROM BRYAN CONTINUE

Democratic Leaders from Coast to Coast Reject Vagaries of the Nebraska Weather Vane.

William Prentiss of Chicago Says Bryan as President Would Be a Failure—Southern Lifelong Democrats Repudiate the Candidate Who Tramples on His Ideals to Catch Votes.

The number of prominent Democrats all over the country who have announced their desertion of Bryan and have advised their friends to vote for Taft and Sherman is a matter of grave concern to Mr. Bryan's managers. In Richmond, Va., always a rock-ribbed citadel of Democracy, a Taft business-men's club has been organized, with hundreds of members, and in Baltimore the defections of leading Democrats has become the subject of a daily serial in the newspapers. These illustrations are given not because they are exceptional in this campaign, but because of their geographical location.

In Chicago a sensation was caused by William Prentiss, who announced that he will support Taft instead of Bryan for President and Deneen instead of Stevenson for Governor. Mr. Prentiss has been a Democratic leader in Chicago for several years. He was Civil Service Commissioner under Mayor Dunne and has several times been Democratic candidate for judge. In 1898 he was chairman of the Democratic State convention. He was formerly an ardent Bryan partisan.

In a letter made public recently Mr. Prentiss charges Bryan with betraying his followers and forsaking the principles for which he stood prior to the present campaign.

Mr. Prentiss says:

"Bryan claims that he is the man to continue and extend Roosevelt's work, claiming much of it as suggestions of his own. Less than three months ago I preferred Bryan as Roosevelt's successor. He was my party leader, in whom I then had full confidence. But, as before indicated, my faith in Bryan is a relic. Bryan, not the ideal Bryan of the past, but the real Bryan of today, surrounded by the Macks, Murphys, McGraws, Taggarts, Sullivans and Joe Baileys et al. of the present-day Democratic party, at the best could be but a dismal failure."

California Democrats for Taft.

John J. Barrett, for years one of the most brilliant orators of the Democratic party of California, has registered this year as a Republican. That registration has given the Democratic managers a shock only second to that which they felt when they learned that M. F. Tarpey had deserted the shifting cause of Bryan.

"My registration speaks for itself," said Mr. Barrett. "When asked to state my politics I said I was a Republican. That tells the tale."

Barrett preached Democratic doctrines from all the stumps of California.

Reasons of a North Carolinian.

Regardless of past affiliations, students of affairs, delvers and thinkers, are fast lining up for Judge Taft. A recent example is that of Silas McBee, editor of the Churchman, of New York. In an interview he says:

"I am a North Carolinian by birth and a lifelong Democrat. I shall vote for Mr. Taft because he has it in his heart to bring my people of the South back into absolute union with the national life and to their historic place as a controlling force in the nation, and to do which would immortalize him as a statesman."

"I shall vote for him because he more nearly represents my ideals of government, of social order and economic policy than any living Democrat, or any man before the people to-day, save alone Theodore Roosevelt, who is the only Republican President I have ever voted for. Mr. Taft has administered every trust committed to him by the nation with an eye single to the nation's good and for the highest interests of the people that compose the nation."

The Roster in Baltimore.

Mr. George R. Willis, former president of the Police Board of Baltimore and Democrat of the old school will cast the first Republican vote since he attained his majority. Mr. Willis will vote for Taft.

"Under no circumstances could I vote for Bryan," said he, "for the reason that I do not believe he is sincere, and if sincere, is not a good man for President of the United States."

"How do you gauge public sentiment?" Mr. Willis was asked.

"Among my clientele I know of no one who will vote for Bryan. There is not a Democrat who favors him."

Another prominent southern Democrat who will vote for Taft is Mr. W. A. Garrett, chief executive officer to the receivers of the Seaboard Air Line Railway Company.

Mr. Garrett's reasons for supporting the Republican candidate are that he is the candidate of the business men and his election would be for the best interests of the country.

Mr. Garrett says he has noticed a leaning toward Taft by several of the Southern States and instanced Alabama as one of these.

Two men who have always been prominent in Democratic circles in Baltimore who have announced that they did not think enough of Bryan to vote for him, and that they would support Taft instead, are Mr. John E. Semmes, one of the prominent lawyers of Baltimore and president of the School Board, and Mr. Leigh Bonsal, who in years past has been one of the most active workers in the Democratic party. Both men said that they could not stand for Bryan and his policies.

Mr. Bonsal's defection from the ranks of Democracy was an especial shock to the Bryan men in the State. They had counted on him as one of the prize spellbinders during the coming campaign, and had no idea but that he was an ardent supporter of the Democratic nominees. "When and where will it suit you best to speak during the coming campaign in behalf of Mr. Bryan?" Mr. Bryan's friends in Maryland wrote him. When Mr. Bonsal replied that he intended to vote for Taft the correspondence ceased.

Major Richard M. Venable, former president of the Baltimore Park Board and one of the most prominent Independent Democrats in Maryland, has declared for Taft and against Bryan. "I am for Taft," said Major Venable, "as I do not agree with Mr. Bryan's opinions on the various questions now confronting the public."

"He has not the judgment and temperament of a statesman. A statesman knows that no matter how desirable a reform may be he must take short steps in accomplishing it. He knows that it cannot be done in a day. The public mind and the new machinery of administration must be educated and adapted to introduce such radical changes as are contained in Mr. Bryan's program, even conceding for the argument that he is right."

Waldo Newcomer, president of the National Exchange Bank of Baltimore, says that although he believes in the principles of the Democratic party and would like to cast his ballot for the Democratic ticket, he finds it impossible to support Bryan and his ideas.

Mr. Newcomer characterized the Bryan plank in the Denver platform guaranteeing deposits in banks as nonsensical and unnecessary. He said the scheme smacked of paternalism, and is not founded upon sound or good business principles.

Mr. Newcomer said he did not regard Mr. Bryan as the type of man to make a satisfactory or safe President, and felt that the interests of the country and the people as a whole would be far better promoted this time by the election of Mr. Taft, in whose sanity, soundness and honesty every one who knows him has the utmost confidence.

Frederic R. Coudert, for years a prominent New York Independent Democrat, has stated that he intends to vote for Taft.

J. E. Smith, vice president of the Simmons Hardware Company of St. Louis, whose politics heretofore has been Democratic, has come out for Taft. He says many other Democrats among St. Louis business men will mark their ballots the same way.

New York Newspaper Deserts Bryan

The Ithaca (N. Y.) Chronicle, a newspaper heretofore Democratic, has broken with that party and joined the opposition, saying:

"Believing that there is no hope for reasonable men in the Democracy under its present leaders; refusing to truckle to the misfit combination of Populism, Socialism, corruption and bossism presented under the guise of Democracy, the Chronicle takes its stand firmly for Taft and Sherman, for Hughes and his running mate."

TAFT'S SERVICE TO LABOR.

Destroyed the Old English Law Assumption that Union Labor is a Conspiracy.

(From the Emporia (Kan.) Gazette.)

The simple fact is that no man has done more to place union labor on a sound, square, law-abiding, respected footing than William H. Taft by his decisions in labor cases. Both employers and employed have acknowledged the justice of his decisions and learned to abide by them, and to-day there is not an intelligent worker or fair minded employer who would seek to abrogate them.

Judge Taft lifted union labor from the doubt and uncertainty as to its rights which had before prevented and gave it a standing which it has ever since retained, and which has proved under his rulings, secure against all attack. The old assumption, derived from England, that union labor is a conspiracy, and that workers could be prevented from leaving railway or other employment at their will, was swept away forever by Judge Taft so far as the United States is concerned, and when an attempt was made, years later, to revive the principle, Judge Taft's decision was quoted successfully by the labor side to defeat the plea.

Mr. Taft was and is labor's friend, because he is absolutely just, and would no more permit wrong to be done to the poorest laborer in the land than he would to any one else. And the honest, law-abiding workers asks and expects no more than this.

Bryan, Purveyor of Proverbs.

In the course of a speech at Elnora, Ind., Oct. 6, 1900, William Jennings Bryan again assured his countrymen that the fight for free silver had not been abandoned, but would go on until victory was won. "When I see a man," he continued, "who has learned by experience what he ought to have learned by reason I am reminded of one of Solomon's proverbs, which is, 'The wise man foreseeth the evil and hideth himself, but the foolish pass on and are punished.'"

Mr. Bryan's purpose in quoting from Solomon was to admonish his hearers that it was time for the wise man to get into line for free coinage at 16 to 1 and that the foolish who refused to do so would surely be punished. Everybody knows what happened in November of that year. Indeed, some of those who heartlessly disobeyed Mr. Bryan's warning were cruel enough after election day to pass out to him a few selections of their own from the proverbial wisdom of Solomon. For example:

"The wise in heart will receive commandments, but the prating fool shall fall."

"It is as sport to a fool to do mischief, but a man of understanding hath wisdom."

"A wise man feareth and departeth from evil, but the foolish rageth and is confident."

All of which, it is respectfully submitted, shows that Mr. Bryan was just as indiscreet in dragging the proverbs of Solomon into his stump speeches as he was when he adopted the "cross of gold" as one of his campaign trappings.

A True American Sentiment.

"I will not hit a man when he is down, even if it would win me every vote in the United States," William H. Taft, Republican candidate for president of the United States, is reported to have said when asked to denounce a personal opponent against whom charges of a serious nature had been made.

Thus spoke the genuine manliness, the magnanimity in the nature of William H. Taft, which led McKinley to say of him, "He's the broadest and most unselfishly brave man I know." William H. Taft could not take any one at an unfair advantage, because it is not in him to do it. Unaffected by fear or favor in dealing out impartial justice, he is gifted with that sympathy for the weak and the fallen which ever goes with true greatness of soul. Every American, be his politics what they may, admires the character of man revealed in the impulsive utterance of William H. Taft, and the candidate who "would not kick a man when he is down if it would win him every vote in the United States" will win all the more votes by words so expressive of a sentiment deep treasured in every true American heart.

It is instructive to observe thousands of wage earners whose votes Gompers has assumed to "throw" to Bryan, march in the Taft processions.

A good way.

DIED IN HALF AN HOUR

Funeral was Largely Attended
By Masons, Car Repairers
and Other Friends

Josiah Thayer, whose remains arrived from Pasco, Wash., Sunday morning, was laid to rest in Evergreen cemetery Sunday afternoon with the impressive funeral rites of the Masonic fraternity, of which he was a member. The body was escorted from the undertaking rooms of Losey & Dean to the First Baptist church by the Masons and the members of the car repairers' union. Funeral services at the church were conducted by Rev. J. F. Abramson, after which the Masonic services were held at the grave, the service being very impressively read by Worshipful Master, Geo. D. LaBar.

Mr. Thayer met his death Wednesday night, while engaged in his duties as car inspector of Pasco. A freight train had pulled in two and he stepped in between the cars to inspect the coupling when the front end of the train backed up and his chest was crushed between the couplings. He died within half an hour, never becoming fully conscious. The remains were brought to this city by the sorrowing widow and children, who were accompanied on their sad journey by Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Huesfloer, and daughter.

Mr. Thayer was 45 years of age and was a member at the time of his death of the Masonic fraternity, the lodge at Pasco being newly organized and acting under dispensation, but not yet chartered. He was also a member of Pine Tree lodge, Car Repairers Union, of this city.

Mr. Huesfloer and family will return to Pasco in a few days and will pack up Mrs. Thayer's household goods and ship them to this city, while that lady and her children will remain in this city and occupy their own home, 711 So. 19th street as soon as the tenants now occupying it move out.

WAS A GOOD GAME

The Brainerd High School Defeated
Little Falls High School by a
Score of 6 to 0

Saturday afternoon the Brainerd high school football team went to Little Falls, and in a somewhat loosely played game won from the high school team of that city by a score of 6 to 0. On the whole the two teams were evenly matched, though Brainerd showed more knowledge of the game, and team work saved them from being scored on repeatedly, while Little Falls was quite strong they showed poor judgment in calling for the wrong play at critical times in the game and so lost the opportunity to score on Brainerd. When the first half ended, Little Falls had the ball only three yards from Brainerd's goal, and would likely have scored if they had had a few minutes more to play.

The first half was poorly played by both teams, especially by Brainerd, Little Falls making their distance repeatedly, while Brainerd fumbled, and made but little gains against their opponents, neither side scoring in this half.

The second half, however, was a little more interesting and more like football, both teams picking up in their playing. Brainerd especially, and in this half Brainerd became more aggressive, and had a shade the best of it throughout. The strong wind prevented either team from doing much kicking. Little Falls on her own 35 yard line fumbled the ball and Frank Culen securing it ran through a broken field for a touch down. Chas. Horn kicked goal, this being the only score made by either side.

There was quite a large crowd of rooters, accompanied by Professors Hartley and Vogel, went with the team, and gave them first class support.

Coach Sanborn has mapped out a week of hard grueling practice for the boys to get them in shape for the game here next Saturday with Aitkin. Though the boys defeated Aitkin quite handsily on the 3rd of this month, there is a rumor that they have picked up a great deal and are planning a surprise on Brainerd. This should be a good game and one worth seeing. They will play on the McKay grounds which are to be fixed up this week.

W. H. Lewis, who was general master mechanic of the Northern Pacific railroad from 1873 to 1878, with headquarters at Brainerd, but now general superintendent of motive power of the Norfolk & Western, with headquarters at Roanoke, Va., is in the city today.

Mr. Lewis, has been with the Union Pacific, Burlington and Oregon Short Line, since leaving Brainerd. This is his first visit to this city in 30 years and he finds great changes at the shops and says there is scarcely a landmark in the city which is recognizable.

He met but two or three men in the shops whom he recognized, one of them being L. P. Johnson. He met several of the old engineers including Henry Cunningham and Tim Brady and expressed a desire to see all the old timers. He will be in the city until midnight tonight and will be glad to have any of the boys who were here in his time to call at his car this evening and visit him.

Mr. Lewis is accompanied on his trip by his son T. E. Lewis, who is general foreman at Norfolk, Va., and by J. A. Pilcher, a mechanical engineer of the road. They go west from here and return east over the Oregon Short Line by way of Denver.

Smith alias Golden Told Strong
Story on Witness Stand in
Municipal Court

DENIED HAVING CASHED CHECK

Claimed a Printer Was in Partnership and had Guaranteed the Board Bill

The trial of T. E. Smith, alias E. T. Golden, in municipal court this morning proved entertaining because of the Munchausen evidence of the defendant. Golden, as he called himself, or Smith as he said his name really is, had an explanation for everything and words came easy. He declared under oath that he had signed a contract with a local printer giving him half the proceeds of the paper he was to start here and that the printer had guaranteed the board bill at the City Hotel. He swore that he went to the train to meet a friend, as he had told Ripplinger, the night clerk, and that after going to the depot he had decided to go to Staples to try to work up business there for the paper. His tale was interwoven with a pretty story of how he saw an old man reeling to the depot and went over with him to take care of him because he saw he had on a lodge or union pin. He cited the copy for a boom edition of the city in the hands of Mr. Michael and others as evidence of his good standing and integrity.

On cross examination he denied point blank that he had cashed any check at H. P. Dunn's drug store or anywhere else. Mr. Dunn was called in rebuttal and produced the check and positively identified the defendant as the man who cashed it. Smith asked Dunn but one question and that was if he did not also get an advance of $2 on an advertising contract from Mr. Dunn, in addition to the $6 and Mr. Dunn stated that he had.

When asked as to whether or not he had paid Miss Halladay for typewriting his boom stuff he said very grandiloquently that he never paid a stenographer until he got done. He could have paid her if he had had leisure.

When asked if he had anything to say why sentence should be passed he declared himself to be perfectly innocent, "So Help Me God."

Judge Albright sentenced him to pay a fine of $50 in default of which he is to be confined to the county jail for 40 days.

Bryan's Political Bedfellows.

Charley Murphy, the New York Tammany boss, whose chief occupation is to get jobs at the public expense for the army of Tammany heelers, who see that the Democratic ticket is voted early and often by hired tramps and repeaters, and "Fingy" Conners, the New York Democratic state boss, whose saloon with its water rat surroundings was recently pictured in Collier's Weekly, are the authors of a New York Democratic platform telling how the national government ought to be run. They say:

"We demand that the public expenditures shall be so safeguarded that sinecure shall be abolished, that economy shall be practiced in every public department and that the business of the people be transacted on the lines on which successful private enterprises are conducted."

When it is recalled that, according to a recent report of the New York Civil Service Reform association, the New York city departments, which are mere annexes of the Tammany tiger's lair, are stuffed full of sinecurists; that men are appointed to positions requiring a high degree of technical knowledge and training whose only qualification is that of the divekeeper and street loafer; that if an employee in a city department shows a real desire to work, thereby embarrassing the others who don't work, he is hazed and annoyed until he finds conditions intolerable; considering that, notwithstanding the marvelous growth of the city and increase in taxable property, its credit has been so impaired by reckless and criminal waste that its obligations have to pay a higher rate of interest than those of many smaller cities and towns; considering that from the days of Democratic Boss Tweed to Democratic Boss Murphy the misgovernment of New York city has been a byword and reproach in all parts of the world, it certainly indicates the gall of a rhinoceros for the Democratic bosses who stand for all this and the Democracy that stands for it to tell the national government how its business should be run.

Happily there is not the slightest cause for fearing that Murphy and Conners, by grace of their friend and political bedfellow, will get their hooks into the national departments at Washington and turn those hives of intelligent industry into dope joints for Tammany sinecurists. The patent proof which Bryan has given that he is hand and glove with Tammany's corrupt regime ought to be and will be accepted by honorable men of all parties throughout the United States as a warning of what Bryan's success would mean in disaster to national honor and credit and the cause of decent and efficient government. It will give fresh incentive to every American interested in maintaining the integrity of American institutions and in having the affairs of the nation honestly administered by officials who do the work they are paid to perform. To aid in the election of Taft and Sherman and in the exclusion of Tammany's foul brood from repeating in Washington the unparalleled infamies they have inflicted on prostrate New York.

John o' Groat's.

John o' Groat's, the most northerly point of Great Britain, was named after John o' Groat of Groat, a Highlander, who is said to have settled there about 1489. The house which John o' Groat built on Duncan's Head bay was a peculiar one. It was of octagon shape, having one room, with eight windows and eight doors, to admit eight members of the family, to prevent their quarrels for precedence at table. By this contrivance each one came in at his own door and sat down at the octagonal table, at which, of course, there was no "head" or "foot."

Digests Your Meals Leaving
Nothing to Ferment and Upset the Stomach

When your stomach is weak or lacking in gastric juice, anything that you eat, no difference what it is, will sour on your stomach, raise the bile and acids to cover your food like oil on water, causing indigestion, dyspepsia, stomach nervousness and belching of sour poisons, which produce foul odors, nasty taste, bilious headache, heartburn, intestinal griping and make you an object of misery. This is stomach trouble which can not be overcome with ordinary digestive medicines. It is caused by fermentation of your food, which will be remedied at once by Pape's Diapepsin, a preparation pleasant to take and as harmless as candy, though it will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat.

Indigestion is a result, not a cause of your trouble. If the stomach is sour and unhealthy, your food becomes tainted, and that's what is causing the indigestion and gas on stomach and other miseries. Pape's Diapepsin is an antacid, most powerful digestive and thorough regulator for weak stomachs. These triangles will digest any kind of food you eat and will cleanse the stomach and intestines in a natural way, which makes you feel fine five minutes afterwards.

Any good pharmacy here will supply you with a case of Pape's Diapepsin for fifty cents. Just reading about this remarkable stomach preparation will not help you should go now and get a case. Put your stomach in full health and by tomorrow you will forget the misery of stomach trouble. Your case is no different from many others. It isn't stomach nerves or catarrh of the stomach, or gastritis, or dyspepsia. It is food rotting—food fermentation—that's all—and takes about five minutes to overcome.

THE DISPATCH heartily endorses the candidacy of John T. Frater for county treasurer and earnestly desires his election. Mr. Frater is a gentleman against whom no word of reproach can be said. His ability for the position, his honesty and his standing among his fellow man as an upright citizen are points greatly in his favor.

Henry Spalding has filled the office of sheriff too well since his appointment for anyone to hope to defeat him for another term. Mr. Spalding's recent illness has made it impossible for him to make an active canvass, and he is still confined to his bed, but this will make no difference with the result.

THE DISPATCH takes great pleasure in endorsing the candidacy of Milton McFadden for re-election as register of deeds. Mr. McFadden has held this position for the past five years and has been a most faithful and competent officer.

The laboring classes in this city understand that they have a friend in the person of W. A. Fleming, candidate for the legislature on the republican ticket.

As a Family Medicine

Lots of suffering would be avoided and much serious disease prevented if every family did as the writer of this letter suggests.

He has found out from experience with many medicines that there is nothing so good as Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills as a family medicine for biliousness and constipation. Such diseases as Bright's disease, diabetes and appendicitis almost invariably arise from neglect to keep the liver, kidneys and bowels regular.

This emphasizes the wisdom of keeping Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills constantly at hand.

MR. WM. PALARDY, 146 Summer St., Central Falls, R. I., writes: "I think Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills most excellent as a cure for biliousness and constipation. He died within half an hour, never becoming fully conscious. The remains were brought to this city by the sorrowing widow and children, who were accompanied on their sad journey by Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Huesfloer, and daughter.

Mr. Thayer was 45 years of age and was a member at the time of his death of the Masonic fraternity, the lodge at Pasco being newly organized and acting under dispensation, but not yet chartered. He was also a member of Pine Tree lodge, Car Repairers Union, of this city. Mr. Huesfloer and family will return to Pasco in a few days and will pack up Mrs. Thayer's household goods and ship them to this city, while that lady and her children will remain in this city and occupy their own home, 711 So. 19th street as soon as the tenants now occupying it move out.

WAS A GOOD GAME

The Brainerd High School Defeated
Little Falls High School by a
Score of 6 to 0

Saturday afternoon the Brainerd high school football team went to Little Falls, and in a somewhat loosely played game won from the high school team of that city by a score of 6 to 0.

On the whole the two teams were evenly matched, though Brainerd showed more knowledge of the game, and team work saved them from being scored on repeatedly, while Little Falls was quite strong they showed poor judgment in calling for the wrong plays at critical times in the game and so lost the opportunity to score on Brainerd. When the first half ended, Little Falls had the ball only three yards from Brainerd's goal, and would likely have scored if they had had a few minutes more to play.

The first half was poorly played by both teams, especially by Brainerd, Little Falls making their distance repeatedly, while Brainerd fumbled, and made but little gains against their opponents, neither side scoring in this half.

The second half, however, was a little more interesting and more like football, both teams picking up in their playing, Brainerd especially, and in its half Brainerd became more aggressive, and had a shade the best of it throughout. The strong wind prevented either team from doing much kicking. Little Falls on her own 35 yard line fumbled the ball and Frank Cullen securing it ran through a broken field for a touch down. Chas. Horn kicked goal, this being the only score made by either side.

There was quite a large crowd of rooter, accompanied by Professors Hartley and Vogel, went with the team, and gave them first class support.

Coach Sanborn has mapped out a week of hard grueling practice for the boys to get them in shape for the game here next Saturday with Aitkin. Though the boys defeated Aitkin quite handily on the 3rd of this month, there is a rumor that they have picked up a great deal and are planning a surprise on Brainerd. This should be a good game and one worth seeing. They will play on the McKay grounds which are to be fixed up this week.

W. H. Lewis, General Master Mechanic Between 1873 and 1878 is in the City

NOW WITH NORFOLK & WESTERN

Is Making a Tour of the Western Roads and Spent Day at Brainerd Shops

W. H. Lewis, who was general master mechanic of the Northern Pacific railroad from 1873 to 1878, with headquarters at Brainerd, but now general superintendent of motive power of the Norfolk & Western, with headquarters at Roanoke, Va., is in the city today.

Mr. Lewis, has been with the Union Pacific, Burlington and Oregon Short Line, since leaving Brainerd. This is his first visit to this city in 30 years and he finds great changes at the shops and says there is scarcely a landmark in the city which is recognizable.

He met but two or three men in the shops whom he recognized, one of them being L. P. Johnson. He met several of the old engineers including Henry Cunningham and Tim Brady and expressed a desire to see all the old timers. He will be in the city until midnight tonight and will be glad to have any of the boys who were here in his time to call at his car this evening and visit him.

Mr. Lewis is accompanied on his trip by his son T. E. Lewis, who is general foreman at Norfolk, Va., and by J. A. Pilcher, a mechanical engineer of the road. They go west from here and return east over the Oregon Short Line by way of Denver.

Smith alias Golden Told Strong
Story on Witness Stand in
Municipal Court

DENIED HAVING CASHED CHECK

Claimed a Printer Was in Partnership and had Guaranteed the Board Bill

The trial of T. E. Smith, alias E. T. Golden, in municipal court this morning proved entertaining because of the Munchausen evidence of the defendant. Golden, as he called himself, or Smith as he said his name really is, had an explanation for everything and words came easy. He declared under oath that he had signed a contract with a local printer giving him half the proceeds of the paper he was to start here and that the printer had guaranteed the board bill at the City Hotel. He swore that he went to the train to meet a friend, as he had told Rippling, the night clerk, and that after going to the depot he had decided to go to Staples to try to work up business there for the paper. His tale was interwoven with a pretty story of how he saw an old man reeling to the depot and went over with him to take care of him because he saw he had on a lodge or union pin. He cited the copy for a boom edition of the city in the hands of Mr. Michael and others as evidence of his good standing and integrity.

On cross examination he denied point blank that he had cashed any check at H. P. Dunn's drug store or anywhere else. Mr. Dunn was called in rebuttal and produced the check and positively identified the defendant as the man who cashed it. Smith asked Dunn but one question and that was if he did not also get an advance of $2 on an advertising contract from Mr. Dunn, in addition to the $6 and Mr. Dunn stated that he had.

When asked as to whether or not he had paid Miss Halladay for typewriting his boom stuff he said very grandiloquently that he never paid a stenographer until he got done. He could have paid her if he had had leisure.

When asked if he had anything to say why sentence should be passed he declared himself to be perfectly innocent, "So Help Me God."

Judge Albright sentenced him to pay a fine of $50 in default of which he is to be confined to the county jail for 40 days.

Bryan's Political Bedfellows.

Charley Murphy, the New York Tammany boss, whose chief occupation is to get jobs at the public expense for the army of Tammany heelers, who see that the Democratic ticket is voted early and often by hired tramps and repeaters, and "Fingy" Connors, the New York Democratic state boss, whose saloon with its water rat surroundings was recently pictured in Collier's Weekly, are the authors of a New York Democratic platform telling how the national government ought to be run. They say:

"We demand that the public expenditures shall be so safeguarded that sinecure shall be abolished, that economy shall be practiced in every public department and that the business of the people be transacted on the lines on which successful private enterprises are conducted."

When it is recalled that, according to a recent report of the New York Civil Service Reform association, the New York city departments, which are mere annexes of the Tammany tiger's lair, are stuffed full of sinecureists; that men are appointed to positions requiring a high degree of technical knowledge and training whose only qualification is that of the divekeeper and street loafer; that if an employee in a city department shows a real desire to work, thereby embarrassing the others who don't work, he is hazed and annoyed until he finds conditions intolerable; considering that, notwithstanding the marvelous growth of the city and increase in taxable property, its credit has been so impaired by reckless and criminal waste that its obligations have to pay a higher rate of interest than those of many smaller cities and towns; considering that from the days of Democratic Boss Tweed to Democratic Boss Murphy the misgovernment of New York city has been a byword and reproach in all parts of the world, it certainly indicates the gall of a rhinoceros for the Democratic bosses who stand for all this and the Democracy that stands for it to tell the national government how its business should be run.

Happily there is not the slightest cause for fearing that Murphy and Connors, by grace of their friend and political bedfellow, will get their hooks into the national departments at Washington and turn those hives of intelligent industry into dope joints for Tammany sinecureists. The patent proof which Bryan has given that he is hand and glove with Tammany's corrupt regime ought to be and will be accepted by honorable men of all parties throughout the United States as a warning of what Bryan's success would mean in disaster to national honor and credit and the cause of decent and efficient government. It will give fresh incentive to every American interested in maintaining the integrity of American institutions and in having the affairs of the nation honestly administered by officials who do the work they are paid to perform, to aid in the election of Taft and Sherman and in the exclusion of Tammany's foul brood from repeating in Washington the unparalleled infamies they have inflicted on prostrate New York.

John o' Groat's, the most northerly point of Great Britain, was named after John o' Groat of Groat, a Highlander, who is said to have settled there about 1480. The house which John o' Groat built on Duncan's Head bay was a peculiar one. It was of octagon shape, having one room, with eight windows and eight doors, to admit eight members of the family, to prevent their quarrels for precedence at table. By this contrivance each one came in at his own door and sat down at the octagonal table, at which, of course, there was no "head" or "foot."

Or Any Other Food You Like Without Fear of Misery in Stomach

GET SOME DIAPEPSIN NOW

Digests Your Meals Leaving Nothing to Ferment and Upset the Stomach

When your stomach is weak or lacking in gastric juice, anything that you eat, no difference what it is, will sour on your stomach, raise the bile and acids to cover your food like oil on water, causing indigestion, dyspepsia, stomach nervousness and belching of sour poisons, which produce foul odors, nasty taste, bilious headache, heartburn, intestinal griping and make you an object of misery. This is stomach trouble which can not be overcome with ordinary digestive medicines. It is caused by fermentation of your food, which will be remedied at once by Pape's Diapepsin, a preparation pleasant to take and as harmless as candy, though it will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat.

Indigestion is a result, not a cause of your trouble. If the stomach is sour and unhealthy, your food becomes tainted, and that's what is causing the indigestion and gas on stomach and other miseries. Pape's Diapepsin is an antacid, most powerful digestive and thorough regulator for weak stomachs. These triangles will digest any kind of food you eat and will cleanse the stomach and intestines in a natural way, which makes you feel fine five minutes afterwards.

Any good pharmacy here will supply you with a case of Pape's Diapepsin for fifty cents. Just reading about this remarkable stomach preparation will not help. You should go now and get a case. Put your stomach in full health and by tomorrow you will forget the misery of stomach trouble. Your case is no different from many others. It isn't stomach nerves or catarrh of the stomach, or gastritis, or dyspepsia. It is food rotting—food fermentation—that's all—and takes about five minutes to overcome.

THE DISPATCH heartily endorses the candidacy of John T. Frater for county treasurer and earnestly desires his election. Mr. Frater is a gentleman against whom no word of reproach can be said. His ability for the position, his honesty and his standing among his fellow men as an upright citizen are points greatly in his favor.

Henry Spalding has filled the office of sheriff too well since his appointment for anyone to hope to defeat him for another term. Mr. Spalding's recent illness has made it impossible for him to make an active canvass, and he is still confined to his bed, but this will make no difference with the result.

THE DISPATCH takes great pleasure in endorsing the candidacy of Milton McFadden for re-election as register of deeds. Mr. McFadden has held this position for the past five years and has been a most faithful and competent officer.

As a Family
Medicine

Lots of suffering would be avoided and much serious disease prevented if every family did as the writer of this letter suggests.

He has found out from experience with many medicines that there is nothing so good as Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills as a family medicine for biliousness and constipation.

Such diseases as Bright's disease, diabetes and appendicitis almost invariably arise from neglect to keep the liver, kidneys and bowels regular.

This emphasizes the wisdom of keeping Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills constantly at hand.

Mr. Wm. PALARDY, 146 Summer St., Central Falls, R. I., writes:—"I think Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills most excellent as a cure for biliousness and constipation. WILLIAM H. TAFT AND PACIFIC COMMERCE

The Constructive Genius of Our Oriental Trade-Empire.

Carried the Torch of Civilization to Antipodes—Made Secure Our Far Eastern Commercial Supremacy.

During the past ten years, under a constructive Republican policy, the United States has assumed a position in the Pacific Ocean which is destined to give her the bulk of the vast commerce of the countries situated on the greatest body of water on the globe.

Some of the things accomplished by the party of enlightened freedom and patriotism have been: The securing of the open door in China; the preservation of the integrity of the Chinese Empire; the acquisition of the Philippines; the establishment of coaling stations across the Pacific and finally the transfer of the American fleet of battleships from the Atlantic to the Pacific to modestly remind the Oriental nations that, having assumed the position of a world power in the Pacific, we are prepared to maintain it against all comers.

America and Japan in Pacific.

Two wars have caused the whole world to realize that the Pacific Ocean is to be the scene of the greatest human activities in the future. The war of the United States with Spain gave us possessions which bring us within speaking distance of Asia, and the Russo-Japanese war revealed Japan to the world as a powerful and progressive nation, whose future sphere of action would of necessity be within the boundaries of the ocean separating America from the Orient.

Taft a Constructive Statesman.

The Honorable William H. Taft has been one of the chief advisers and strongest advocates of the Republican administration policy during this formative and historic period. He has been a pioneer, not only along the lines of statecraft, which have had for their object the development of our western states, but he has given particular attention to the situation in the Orient with reference to the future commerce between those far away countries and the Pacific coast of America.

In his own inimitable way and uniting a unique personality with the highest authority as a diplomat, he poured oil on the troubled waters in Japan and changed the political storm there raging, into a placid sunshine of peace.

In China he created such enthusiasm as the Orientals have never shown to any other visitor and left that empire with the belief on their part that the United States is not only ready to enter into commercial reciprocity, but to still stand as China's friend and lend its influence to see that she gets justice from those who would violate her territorial integrity.

Taft and Oriental Trade.

In his Shanghai speech, addressing a body of influential merchants, diplomats and Chinese government officials, Mr. Taft spoke in part as follows:

"We do not complain of loss of trade that results from the employment of great enterprise, ingenuity or attention to the demands of the Chinese market, or the greater business acumen shown by our competitors. We would have the right to protest at being secluded from the trade of China by reason of our insistence of the policy of the Open Door. The acquiescence in this policy of all the nations interested has been so unhesitating and emphatic that it is hardly worth while to speculate upon the probable action of the United States in case the interests of American merchants are placed in jeopardy, and how far the United States would go in the protection of its Chinese trade. I cannot say. It is clear, however, that our merchants are being roused to the importance of the Chinese trade and they would view with deep concern any and all political obstacles which menace that expansion.

"This feeling is likely to find expression in the action of the American government. The United States and the other powers favor the open door, and if they are wise they will encourage the Empire to take long steps in administrative and governmental reform, the development of the resources of China, and the improvement of the welfare of the people. To do this would add to China's strength and position as a self-respecting government and aid her in preparing to resist possible foreign aggression in the seeking of undue and exclusive proprietary privileges. Thus no foreign aid will be required to enforce the open door and the policy of equal opportunity for all."

History Making Happenings.

During recent Republican administrations we have built up an export trade with the Far East of something like $150,000,000 per year. We have landed an army on Chinese territory, and have been drawn willy-nilly into the vortex of the Far Eastern question. During the period policies have been formulated which have compelled us to take a hand in momentous negotiations. We have definitely enrolled the Far East among the objects of our commercial and diplomatic solicitude. Things have changed much during this ten years of Republican rule.

The United States has come into possession of the Philippines and all the political and strategic responsibilities entailed by this movement. The participation in, and suppression of, the Boxer rebellion, the expanding recognition of the supreme importance to the future of American trade, of the open door, the realization that, with the exception of Japan, no country is so well situated as the United States, industrially and geographically, to make the most and the best of the development of China. These and other events have transformed American indifference to the fortunes of the Far East into a real, live, tingling and vigilant concern.

Logical Commercial Events.

It did not need the Chinese boycott of American goods, or the outbreak of the trouble with Japan over the immigration question, to convince an impartial onlooker that America's relations with the powers of the Far East would, before long, be more immediate, of greater moment and possibly of greater hazard than our relations with the powers of Europe. The American fleet has foreshadowed the systematic assertion of American power in the Pacific. American interests in that ocean, commercial, political and territorial, have been neglected far too long.

Father of the Philippines.

Mr. Taft is in a sense the father of the Philippines. It has been his kind, constructive statesman's hand that evolved order out of their original chaos. In his report submitted to Congress, as a result of his visit to the Philippines to be present at the opening of their first Assembly, he made four recommendations. First—action by Congress admitting to the United States Philippine products under such conditions that they would not interfere with American tobacco and sugar industries; second, the removal of restrictions as to acquiring mining claims and lands; third, further legislation authorizing the government to carry on an agricultural bank, which is now authorized only as a private enterprise; fourth, the repeal of the law applying to the islands the coastwise laws of the United States.

Philosophy of Development.

Our nation has grown by obeying the instinct of development. We are to-day entitled to be called Greater America, but that greatness will be lost if we forget the political philosophy which has made us great—expansion of American thought, territory, mechanical skill, civilization and philosophy. This is an auspicious time for the creation and development of our export trade. The unexplored and undeveloped markets of Asia furnish the opportunity. All other fields have been occupied, and to attempt to wrest them from other nations would be of doubtful expediency. In the Orient the commercial possibilities exceed the dreams of the optimist.

Are the American people ready to abandon such a situation and leave it to the mercy of the Democratic party with its failure of fifty years looking at us from the past?

THE YOUNG REPUBLICAN.

In a business sense the young voters who have come forward since 1904 have more at stake than any other class in rendering a right decision. Their active lives are ahead. They have more years to live, and are now laying the foundations of their business careers. National policies and conditions are of the highest consequence to them. Perhaps they are farmers. If so, let them ask the older generation how farmers fared under the last Democratic administration. Let them take the market reports of to-day and compare them with the prices that prevailed when Mr. Bryan made his crusade for free silver and hurled defiance at President Cleveland because he stood by the gold standard. At the same time Bryan denounced the Republican party for its protectionist as well as sound money position. Perhaps the first voter is to engage in manufacturing or mining, as wage-earner or otherwise. Does he want his American rate of wages and the industry he chooses reasonably protected against foreign competition? If he does Mr. Bryan's leadership will take him in the opposite direction.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The Tide of Prosperity.

The tide of prosperity may ebb and flow, but the great waves of industrial wealth will continue to grow in volume with ever-increasing comfort and happiness to our contented people, who will soon number 100,000,000. And because of our intelligent and skillful labor, made so because of good wages and good living, we shall make better fabrics and build stronger structures—that in spite of their higher cost in the beginning will be cheaper in the end and will be wanted by the people in every corner of the earth. So that we shall capture the markets of the world in greater volume without ever sacrificing our home market, the foundation of our national wealth and progress.—Hon. James S. Sherman.

Henry Gassaway Davis, who was defeated with Parker four years ago, is wiser as well as older. He says he sees no hope for the Democracy, and thinks Parker is again wasting valuable time in making speeches.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

It is interesting to note to how great an extent Governor Hughes is commanding the support of Democrats in New York State.—Springfield Republican.

Anyway, Mr. Taft never tried to steal Mr. Bryan's government ownership raiment.—Omaha Bee.

CHICAGO WINS FROM DETROIT

Captures Second Game of the Championship Series.

WEAKENED IN EIGHTH INNING

"Wild Bill" Donovan Went to Pieces and the Cubs Scored Six Runs Overall Pitched a Steady Game for Chicago and the Detroiters Did Not Score Until the Last Inning, When They Managed to Get One Run.

Chicago, Oct. 12.—After eight innings of clockwork baseball, "Wild Bill" Donovan, premier pitcher of the champions of the American league weakened under the prolonged strain and the Chicago world's champions captured their second game of the present series, 6 to 1.

Detroit's hopes, which were high after seven innings in which Chicago had made only one hit, were smashed in the eighth. In that sensational portion of the game Donovan was hit for a home run, a triple, a double and three singles. Incidentally he walked one man and allowed another to score on a wild pitch. Overall, on the contrary, was steady throughout the game, holding the Tigers to four hits and one run. That run marked Detroit's despairing efforts in their half of the ninth.

Nothing could have exceeded the excellence of Donovan's work up to the fatal eighth. He had speed, an assortment of curves, which he mixed up in baffling style, and he cut the corners with the greatest precision and speed. He had the best of Chicago's batsmen swinging wild, and twice struck out the redoubtable Kling. Not until the sixth did the world's champions connect with his curves. Then the distinction fell to Overall, who, considering the high class of ball he pitched, did not need the added glory. But he did it, he poked a short fly just beyond Downs and the Chicago enthusiasts cried loudly for a run. It was their first legitimate chance for riding themselves of their excitement. Donovan, however, only smiled and a moment later the side was retired on a flashing double play.

Not a runner of either side reached first base until the third. Then Overall passed Downs and the latter was sacrificed to second, where his obsequies as a runner were performed.

Farther Than Chicago Went.

This was farther than Chicago went. Overall reached first when Rossman, who stopped his grounder instead of covering the bag himself, waited for Donovan to do so and the latter dropped his throw. But the big Chicago pitcher got no farther. Again in the sixth Overall reached the initial sack on his single, but with these two exceptions Chicago could do nothing with Donovan's delivery up to the eighth. Then it was different.

To Joe Tinker belongs the credit for breaking the spell which Donovan had held over the Chicagoans for so long. Steinfeldt had struck out and Hoffman had reached first because Schaefer, after a beautiful one-handed pick-up of his weak grounder, had thrown low. The crowd scarcely hoped for more than a single, and hardly expected that, when Tinker batted the ball clear into the stand in right field. Tinker, preceded by Hoffman, trotted around the circuit amidst the first real cheering of the game.

The next man at bat, "Nolsy" John Kling, drove the first ball pitched into the overflow crowd in left field for two bases. The onslaught had affected Donovan, but he still smiled and retired Overall on a weak grounder. He went to pieces, however, when Sheppard, the next batsman, singled over second and scored Kling. The whole team in fact, seemed to be stunned by the suddenness of it all. Sheppard made a desperate steal of second and went to third on Evers' safe punt. Rossman, in a moment of absent-mindedness brought about by the general catastrophe, allowed Evers to flash away from first and reach second, standing up while the ball remained in the first baseman's hands. Schulte tripled to center, scoring Sheppard and Evers. Then, to finish matters up, Donovan threw a wild pitch and Schulte trotted across the plate with Chicago's sixth and last run. Chance walked and stole second while Schmidt was musing over the ball on Detroit's sudden fall in fortune, but Steinfeldt flew out, retiring the side.

Detroit substituted D. Jones for O'Leary for a final try for victory and the substitute was given his base on balls. He went to second on Crawford's out and scored when Cobb singled to center. Rossman, however, hit into a double play and the game was over.

Amusement Resort Destroyed.

St. Paul, Oct. 12.—The extensive amusement park plant at Wildwood, White Bear lake, has been destroyed by fire. All the numerous buildings except the bowling alley and part of the "Figure 8" structure were burned, entailing an estimated loss of $40,000.

Riot in Cetinje.

Cetinje, Montenegro, Oct. 12.—During a demonstration in the streets here a band of rioters tore down the coat of arms from the Austrian consulate.

FIGHT ON A HIGH TOWER.

Police men and an Insane Man in Desperate Battle.

New York, Oct. 12.—At the top of the great iron tower at the Brooklyn end of the Williamsburg bridge a thrilling struggle took place while hundreds of persons looked on from below. An insane man who had eluded the tower watchman climbed an iron stairway to the top of the tower, 535 feet above the East River, and was preparing for a leap into the river when two policemen climbed up after him.

The appearance of the policeman distracted the man from his purpose and he turned upon the bluecoats with a razor. The insane man rushed to attack them and then on the narrow footing at the dizzy height a ten-minute battle took place.

Back and forth the trio struggled, now on the verge of toppling to destruction and then tottering back to the center of the small platform. To those who gazed aloft it seemed hours instead of minutes before the man was overpowered.

At the Eastern district hospital, where the prisoner was taken, he gave his name as Joseph Kratz of Brooklyn. He was placed in a padded cell.

NOW IN GOOD HEALTH.

Senator Beveridge Recovers From Nervous Breakdown.

Reno, Nev., Oct. 12.—United States Senator Albert J. Beveridge passed through here on the Eastbound Overland Limited on his way to Salt Lake, where he is billed to speak on general issues of the campaign. He says he is in far better health now than he was when he opened the campaign having been resting at the Tavern Lake Tahoe, for the past few days.

Senator Beveridge was to have spoken here Saturday night, but had to abandon his intentions on account of a severe hoarseness and a slight nervous breakdown. Both of these he says, have passed off, and he describes himself as "bully." After Salt Lake he will talk at Pueblo, Colo., on labor questions, and then will tour the Middle West in his private train, making as many as thirty speeches a day.

WILLIAM H. TAFT AND PACIFIC COMMERCE

The Constructive Genius of Our Oriental Trade-Empire.

Carried the Torch of Civilization to Antipodes—Made Secure Our Far Eastern Commercial Supremacy.

During the past ten years, under a constructive Republican policy, the United States has assumed a position in the Pacific Ocean which is destined to give her the bulk of the vast commerce of the countries situated on the greatest body of water on the globe.

Some of the things accomplished by the party of enlightened freedom and patriotism have been: The securing of the open door in China; the preservation of the integrity of the Chinese Empire; the acquisition of the Philippines; the establishment of coaling stations across the Pacific and finally the transfer of the American fleet to the Pacific to modestly remind the Oriental nations that, having assumed the position of a world power in the Pacific, we are prepared to maintain it against all comers.

America and Japan in Pacific. Two wars have caused the whole world to realize that the Pacific Ocean is to be the scene of the greatest human activities in the future. The war of the United States with Spain gave us possessions which bring us within speaking distance of Asia, and the Russo-Japanese war revealed Japan to the world as a powerful and progressive nation, whose future sphere of action would of necessity be within the boundaries of the ocean separating America from the Orient.

Taft a Constructive Statesman. The Honorable William H. Taft has been one of the chief advisers and strongest advocates of the Republican administration policy during this formative and historic period. He has been a pioneer, not only along the lines of statecraft, which have had for their object the development of our western states, but he has given particular attention to the situation in the Orient with reference to the future commerce between those far away countries and the Pacific coast of America.

In his own inimitable way and uniting a unique personality with the highest authority as a diplomat, he poured oil on the troubled waters in Japan and changed the political storm there raging into a placid sunshine of peace. In China he created such enthusiasm as the Orientals have never shown to any other visitor and left that empire with the belief on their part that the United States is not only ready to enter into commercial reciprocity, but to still stand as China's friend and lend its influence to see that she gets justice from those who would violate her territorial integrity.

Taft and Oriental Trade. In his Shanghai speech, addressing a body of influential merchants, diplomats and Chinese government officials, Mr. Taft spoke in part as follows:

"We do not complain of loss of trade that results from the employment of great enterprise, ingenuity or attention to the demands of the Chinese market, or the greater business acumen shown by our competitors. We would have the right to protest at being secluded from the trade of China by reason of our insistence of the policy of the Open Door. The acquiescence in this policy of all the nations interested has been so unhesitating and emphatic that it is hardly worth while to speculate upon the probable action of the United States in case the interests of American merchants are placed in jeopardy, and how far the United States would go in the protection of its Chinese trade, I cannot say. It is clear, however, that our merchants are being roused to the importance of the Chinese trade and they would view with deep concern any and all political obstacles which menace that expansion.

"This feeling is likely to find expression in the action of the American government. The United States and the other powers favor the open door, and if they are wise they will encourage the Empire to take long steps in administrative and governmental reform, the development of the resources of China, and the improvement of the welfare of the people. To do this would add to China's strength and position as a self-respecting government and aid her in preparing to resist possible foreign aggression in the seeking of undue and exclusive proprietary privileges. Thus no foreign aid will be required to enforce the open door and the policy of equal opportunity for all."

History Making Happenings. During recent Republican administrations we have built up an export trade with the Far East of something like $150,000,000 per year. We have landed an army on Chinese territory, and have been drawn wildly into the vortex of the Far Eastern question. During the period policies have been formulated which have compelled us to take a hand in momentous negotiations. We have definitely enrolled the Far East among the objects of our commercial and diplomatic solicitude. Things have changed much during this ten years of Republican rule.

The United States has come into possession of the Philippines and all the political and strategic responsibilities entailed by this movement. The participation in, and suppression of, the Boxer rebellion, the expanding recognition of the supreme importance to the future of American trade, of the open door, the realization that, with the exception of Japan, no country is so well situated as the United States, industrially and geographically, to make the most and the best of the development of China. These and other events have transformed American indifference to the fortunes of the Far East into a real, live, tingling and vigilant concern.

Logical Commercial Events.

It did not need the Chinese boycott of American goods, or the outbreak of the trouble with Japan over the immigration question, to convince an impartial onlooker that America's relations with the powers of the Far East would, before long, be more immediate, of greater moment and possibly of greater hazard than our relations with the powers of Europe. The American fleet has foreshadowed the systematic assertion of American power in the Pacific. American interests in that ocean, commercial, political and territorial, have been neglected far too long.

Father of the Philippines.

Mr. Taft is in a sense the father of the Philippines. It has been his kind, constructive statesman's hand that evolved order out of their original chaos. In his report submitted to Congress, as a result of his visit to the Philippines to be present at the opening of their first Assembly, he made four recommendations. First—action by Congress admitting to the United States Philippine products under such conditions that they would not interfere with American tobacco and sugar industries; second, the removal of restrictions as to acquiring mining claims and lands; third, further legislation authorizing the government to carry on an agricultural bank, which is now authorized only as a private enterprise; fourth, the repeal of the law applying to the Islands the coastwise laws of the United States.

Philosophy of Development.

Our nation has grown by obeying the instinct of development. We are to-day entitled to be called Greater America, but that greatness will be lost if we forget the political philosophy which has made us great—expansion of American thought, territory, mechanical skill, civilization and philosophy. This is an auspicious time for the creation and development of our export trade. The unexplored and undeveloped markets of Asia furnish the opportunity. All other fields have been occupied, and to attempt to wrest them from other nations would be of doubtful expediency. In the Orient the commercial possibilities exceed the dreams of the optimist.

Are the American people ready to abandon such a situation and leave it to the mercy of the Democratic party with its failure of fifty years looking at us from the past?

THE YOUNG REPUBLICAN.

In a business sense the young voters who have come forward since 1904 have more at stake than any other class in rendering a right decision. Their active lives are ahead. They have more years to live, and are now laying the foundations of their business careers. National policies and conditions are of the highest consequence to them. Perhaps they are farmers. If so, let them ask the older generation how farmers fared under the last Democratic administration. Let them take the market reports of to-day and compare them with the prices that prevailed when Mr. Bryan made his crusade for free silver and hurled defiance at President Cleveland because he stood by the gold standard. At the same time Bryan denounced the Republican party for its protectionist as well as sound money position. Perhaps the first voter is to engage in manufacturing or mining, as wage-earner or otherwise. Does he want his American rate of wages and the industry he chooses reasonably protected against foreign competition? If he does Mr. Bryan's leadership will take him in the opposite direction.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The Tide of Prosperity.

The tide of prosperity may ebb and flow, but the great waves of industrial wealth will continue to grow in volume with ever-increasing comfort and happiness to our contented people, who will soon number 100,000,000. And because of our intelligent and skillful labor, made so because of good wages and good living, we shall make better fabrics and build stronger structures—that in spite of their higher cost in the beginning will be cheaper in the end and will be wanted by the people in every corner of the earth. So that we shall capture the markets of the world in greater volume without ever sacrificing our home market, the foundation of our national wealth and progress.—Hon. James S. Sherman.

Henry Cassaway Davis, who was defeated with Parker four years ago, is wiser as well as older. He says he sees no hope for the Democracy, and thinks Parker is again wasting valuable time in making speeches.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

It is interesting to note to how great an extent Governor Hughes is commanding the support of Democrats in New York State.—Springfield Republican.

Anyway, Mr. Taft never tried to steal Mr. Bryan's government ownership raiment.—Omaha Bee.

CHICAGO WINS FROM DETROIT

Captures Second Game of the Championship Series.

WEAKENED IN EIGHTH INNING

"Wild Bill" Donovan Went to Pieces and the Cubs Scored Six Runs. Overall Pitched a Steady Game for Chicago and the Detroiters Did Not Score Until the Last Inning, When They Managed to Get One Run.

Chicago, Oct. 12.—After eight innings of clockwork baseball, "Wild Bill" Donovan, premier pitcher of the champions of the American league, weakened under the prolonged strain and the Chicago world's champions captured their second game of the present series, 6 to 1.

Detroit's hopes, which were high after seven innings in which Chicago had made only one hit, were smashed in the eighth. In that sensational portion of the game Donovan was hit for a home run, a triple, a double and three singles. Incidentally he walked one man and allowed another to score on a wild pitch. Overall, on the contrary, was steady throughout the game, holding the Tigers to four hits and one run. That run marked Detroit's despairing efforts in their half of the ninth.

Nothing could have exceeded the excellence of Donovan's work up to the fatal eighth. He had speed, an assortment of curves, which he mixed up in baffling style, and he cut the corners with the greatest precision and speed. He had the best of Chicago's batsmen swinging wild, and twice struck out the redoubtable Kling. Not until the sixth did the world's champions connect with his curves. Then the distinction fell to Overall, who, considering the high class of ball he pitched, did not need the added glory. But he did it, he poked a short fly just beyond Downs and the Chicago enthusiasts cried loudly for a run. It was their first legitimate chance for riding themselves of their excitement. Donovan, however, only smiled and a moment later the side was retired on a flashing double play.

Not a runner of either side reached first base until the third. Then Overall passed Downs and the latter was sacrificed to second, where his obsequies as a runner were performed.

Farther Than Chicago Went.

This was farther than Chicago went. Overall reached first when Rossman, who stopped his grounder instead of covering the bag himself, waited for Donovan to do so and the latter dropped his throw. But the big Chicago pitcher got no farther. Again in the sixth Overall reached the initial sack on his single, but with these two exceptions Chicago could do nothing with Donovan's delivery up to the eighth. Then it was different.

To Joe Tinker belongs the credit for breaking the spell which Donovan had held over the Chicagoans for so long. Steinfeldt had struck out and Hoffman had reached first because Schaefer, after a beautiful one-handed pick-up of his weak grounder, had thrown low. The crowd scarcely hoped for more than a single, and hardly expected that, when Tinker batted the ball clear into the stand in right field. Tinker, preceded by Hoffman, trotted around the circuit amidst the first real cheering of the game.

The next man at bat, "Noisy" John Kling, drove the first ball pitched into the overflow crowd in left field for two bases. The onslaught had affected Donovan, but he still smiled and retired Overall on a weak grounder. He went to pieces, however, when Sheppard, the next batsman, singled over second and scored Kling. The whole team in fact, seemed to be stunned by the suddenness of it all. Sheppard made a desperate steal of second and went to third on Evers' safe punt. Rossman, in a moment of absent-mindedness brought about by the general catastrophe, allowed Evers to flash away from first and reach second, standing up while the ball remained in the first baseman's hands. Schulte tripped to center, scoring Sheppard and Evers. Then, to finish matters up, Donovan threw a wild pitch and Schulte trotted across the plate with Chicago's sixth and last run. Chance walked and stole second while Schmidt was musing over the ball on Detroit's sudden fall in fortune, but Steinfeldt flew out, retiring the side.

Detroit substituted D. Jones for O'Leary for a final try for victory and the substitute was given his base on balls. He went to second on Crawford's out and scored when Cobb singled to center. Rossman, however, hit into a double play and the game was over.

Amusement Resort Destroyed.

St. Paul, Oct. 12.—The extensive amusement park plant at Wildwood, White Bear lake, has been destroyed by fire. All the numerous buildings except the bowling alley and part of the "Figure 8" structure were burned, entailing an estimated loss of $40,000.

Riot in Cetinje.

Cetinje, Montenegro, Oct. 12.—During a demonstration in the streets here a band of rioters tore down the coat of arms from the Austrian consulate.
